

Underwater hotel, located three meters deep, has, for the moment, a single room, but the artist says that this is just the prototype. If successful, the construction of the underwater hotel will achieve more. Double room has windows on all four walls, directly overlooking the depths of the lake.

I can not see very far, because water is very clear, but you can wait to see when the fish is close to the window.

For further news check here

Read more...

Source: www.realitatea.net