

Sibiu can be considered the cultural capital of Romania. Nearly at each stroke of the Council Tower takes place one cultural event. The city attracts with preserved traditions and also with a natural setting and a great history. Sibiu has all the advantages so as to become the perfect destination for a dream vacation. The historic center of Sibiu is full of architectural symbols and buildings markets are full of medieval legends.

Small Square of Sibiu lies the famous bridge, turns into a real summer swarm of tourists, you can hardly find a spot on the terraces in the area in the middle of summer. But if you want to spend a relaxing weekend in Sibiu, mild autumn days are perfect for this. Sibiu was the European Capital of Culture for one year in 2007, when the city was the attention of tourists from all over the world.

For further information about accommodation in Sibiu check here

Read more...

Source: www.Realitatea.net