

Images of Romania's tourist attractions, in 39 cities, will be available in Street View on Google Maps, the end of a project launched Monday at the Romanian Athenaeum in Bucharest, in which 40,000 km will be traveled in the country by car and a bicycle. Google representatives have announced the project Monday in front of the Romanian Athenaeum, which was placed on the steps of a big map of

Romania

, with images of famous

tourist attractions that Peles Castle, Bran and Voronet. The project was presented by Dan Bulucea,

Romania

's Google Country Manager at the conference are invited director Philharmonic "George Enescu", Andrei Dumitriu, its seat being the first object in the project, Secretary of State for the assets of the Ministry of Culture - Sergiu Nistor - and chief of tourism in the City Hall, Michael Gutanu. Retezat National Park, the historic center of Sighisoara, the wooden churches of Maramures, the monasteries of Moldova, villages with fortified churches, Peles, Bicz and more will be reflected in the images on Google Maps. Thus, coverage of

Street View

in

Romania

is extended by a further 39 cities, including Craiova, Focsani, Baia Mare, Rm. Valcea, Alba Iulia, Galati, Deva, Hunedoara, Saint George, Zalau.

For further information about accommodation in this cities check here

Read more...

Source: www.tourneo.ro