

Foreign tourists who want to know why they should choose Romania to spend holidays have the chance to find out which are the most important tourist points

. The ranking was done by British journalists specialized in tourism. Lonely Planet talks about trip to as something between an eternal Halloween and the Led Zeppelin cover one of the albums that you have a farmer carrying a bundle of twigs behind.

Romania

British journalists started their description with the contrasts between luxury cars being driven by some Romanian and carts that walk on country roads full of potholes. The haystacks, and sheep that roam the mountain got their attention also. Journalists could not forget about Dracula's legend, which is attracting many visitors. Overall, they believe that there are 13 recommended tourist points that travelers deserve to visit in Romania.

For further information about accommodation near this tourist points check here

Read more..

Source: www.Realitatea.net